A Man for All Ages:

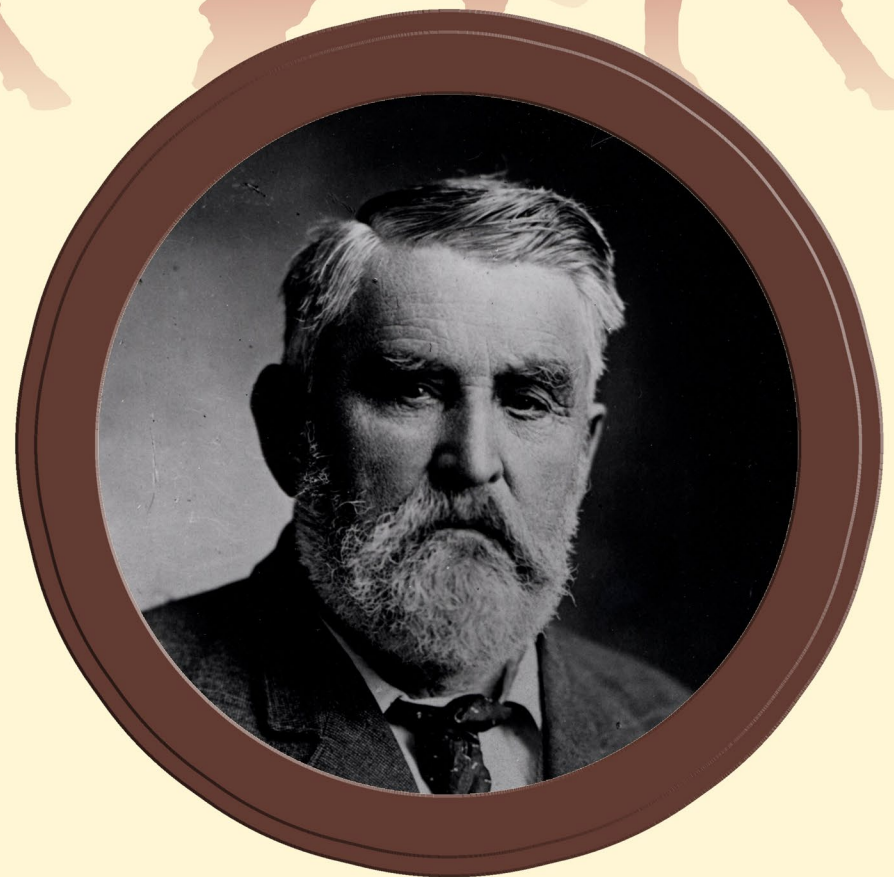

The Charles Goodnight Legacy

Byron Price and Wyman Meinzer provide a unique perspective on the life and legacy of ranching legend Col. Charles Goodnight. Combining fresh research and the first visual tour of Goodnights travels through the Texas Panhandle, A Man for All Ages: The Charles Goodnight Legacy, portrays Goodnight as never before.

Price holds the Charles Marion Russell Memorial Chair, is Director of the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West at the University of Oklahoma and is Director of the University of Oklahoma Press. He is the author of more than three dozen journal articles on western American history and art and has written several books. Price has won numerous writing awards including best book of the year in western history from the Caughey -Western History Association and has served as consultant for several television series and specials.

Meinzer is the only official State Photographer of Texas, having earned that designation in 1997, and was selected to do the photography for the George W. Bush Presidential Library. In 2009 he received the Distinguished Alumnus award from Texas Tech University in recognition of outstanding achievement and dedicated service. Meinzer, the recipient of the 1997 National Literary Award for his book, "Texas Lost: Vanishing Heritage", has 20 photography books to his credit and more than 250 magazine cover credits including Newsweek, Outdoor Life, National Geographic, Time, and Texas Highways.

The historic Charles Goodnight Ranch House has been under renovation since 2005 when the property was gifted to the Armstrong County Museum. The restored and refurnished house will be opened to the public with a celebration Oct. 5-6 to include the groundbreaking ceremony for the Charles Goodnight Historical Center.
